EMBASSY OASIS CHARGES BEING PROBED BY U. S.

Government Officials Scanning "Unusual Shipments" of Liquor to Foreign Diplomats

BOOTLEGGERS BEING SUPPLIED THROUGH EMBASSIES, CHARGE

Believe More Liquor is Coming in than is Needed by Foreigners

WASHINGTON, D. C.—By The Associated Press.—The machinery of the federal government has been set in motion to ascertain whether any foreign embassies and legations here have brought into the country excessive shipments of liquor which later was diverted into the bootleg trade in the national capital.

As a result of recent disclosure by the Washington police, who charge openly that some foreign envoys are using their diplomatic immunity to supply bootleggers, the treasury department has sent a memorandum to the state department which is understood to call attention to certain "unusual shipments" of liquor coming to embassies and legations here.

While no formal protest concerning the shipments was made, high treasury officials said that several shipments in recent weeks were of such magnitude as to attract the attention of prohibition enforcement officers. The treasury was represented as believing that more liquor was coming in than was "reasonably required" by the staffs of the foreign representatives here.

FOUR BUILDINGS IN NEW ORLEANS RETAIL DISTRICT ARE BURNED

NEW ORLEANS, La.— A row of four three story brick buildings in the retail commercial district on Baronne street near Canal were practically destroyed by an early morning fire Thursday. Preliminary estimates by fire authorities placed the loss at $300,000.

The buildings destroyed were owned by the Tulane College endowment fund and formed part of the Tulane-Crescent Theater arcade. The blaze was checked by a rear arcade from spreading into the Tulane and Crescent theatres.

CALLS ON CHINESE FACTIONS TO JOIN FOR GOOD OF ALL

SHANGHAI—By The Associated Press.—Sun Yat-Sen, who will sail Saturday for Canton to resume control of affairs there, from which he was ousted last June, issued a manifesto Thursday to the various political factions of China, calling on them to sink their differences and work for the reunion of their country.

Sun reiterated his condemnation of the present Peking parliament as unconstitutional.

KLAN IN ILLINOIS TO FIGHT INQUIRY

CHICAGO, Ill.—Imperial Wizard Hiram Wesley Evans and three other imperial officers of the Invisible Empire, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, became visible in Chicago for the announced intention of making a thorough investigation of action against Klansmen here, particularly with reference to the Klan investigation by a council committee.

Imperial Wizard Evans indicated that the Klan was ready to fight and declared that "vicious, unfounded reports involving the Klan" will not be suffered by his organization.

KLAN HELD BY PROSECUTOR TO BE DIRECTLY RESPONSIBLE FOR MOREHOUSE OUTRAGES

Statement of Attorney General Coco at Conclusion of Open Hearing into Klan Operations Indicates State Will Ask Indictments of Grand Jury

BASTROP, La.—By the Associated Press.—The Ku Klux Klan was charged with responsibility for numerous outrages in Morehouse parish in a statement Thursday by A. V. Coco, attorney general of Louisiana, at the conclusion of the open hearing into activities of masked bands, which culminated August 24 in the kidnapping near here of Watt Daniel and T. F. Richard, the bodies of whom were found in a lake 25 miles from the scene on December 22.

The attorney general addressed the court immediately before adjournment.

The text of the statement follows in part:

Brought Reign of Terror

"It is my very painful and humiliating duty to refer to the deplorable conditions in this parish, as revealed by the evidence. The proof is convincing that since the advent of the Ku Klux Klan into this parish there has gradually arisen a condition of disorder and lawlessness which has ripened into a supercession of constituted authorities by the Ku Klux Klan and the establishment of a government of its own, from which a reign of terror and chaos has resulted and the parish was on the brink of riot and bloodshed when the governor sent the militia here and these proceedings were initiated.

"While it may be conceded that many Klansmen did not actually participate or encourage these many acts of lawlessness and crime, which finally culminated in the murder of Watt Daniel and T. F. Richards, they may nevertheless be deemed responsible therefore by reasons of their silence and inaction.

These offenses and crimes were committed in the name of the order, under the protection of its regalia and in the use of its recognized methods and practices, and under the leadership of its officers, the principle of which has, for the last six months at least, brought about a condition in this parish which is a blot on our civilization, and brings into question the proud title of American citizenship.

To Ask Indictments

"The flogging of citizens, their deportation and banishment and other kindred offenses, were but mere pastimes and of such frequent occurrence that they were accepted as commonplace things, the protest against which was itself sufficient ground for deportation.

"Without going into detail, we beg to say that the conclusion we have reached is that many persons have been identified and connected with these many acts of violence and crime, and it is the purpose of the state to present this evidence to the grand jury for its consideration and action as soon as we can get a transcript of it."

Jones Takes Stand

Laurence Leon Jones of Moselle, Miss., declared by the state to have been the last person known to have seen Watt Daniel and T. F. Richard after they were kidnapped by masked men near here August 24, and whose bodies were found in the waters of Lake La Fourche on December 22, took the stand Thursday at the open hearing into operations of hooded bands in Morehouse parish.

Attacks Legality of Hearing

Wm Barnett, counsel for Dr. B. M. McKoin, T. Jeff Burnett and Newt Gray, identified by numerous witnesses as having been members of various masked parties also issued a statement attacking the legality of the hearing and the testimony given by those summoned to the stand.

Attorney Barnett's statement, the first formal comment from the defense, follows in part:

"This hearing has been held under section 1918 of the revised statutes of this state. The statute does not provide that witnesses may be drawn before a court and grilled and cross-examined, but in order that their depositions may be taken. None of this has been done in this case, therefore this whole proceeding in my judgment is a nullity and the testimony adduced cannot be legally used in any proceedings whatsoever. It cannot even be used legally before a grand jury. It would be hearsay, and any bill of indictment predicated upon this testimony would be quashed by the court.

Identity Not Established

"The corpus delicti has not been established to a reasonable certainty to say nothing of the rule that must be established beyond a reasonable doubt. Two bodies were found in Lake La Fourche, the coroner of the parish Dr. O. M. Patterson, a man of unquestionable integrity and standing, both as a citizen and as a physician, was not permitted to make any examination of them. He never got closer than forty feet to the bodies while they were yet in the water, and he was told that he could not make further examination; while at the same time two pathologists seemed to have already been arraigned with, even prior to the finding of the bodies, who were to come and make an examination which would disclose great brutality etc., as to the manner in which the bodies found came to their death. And it might be said here that their testimony was not at all disappointing in this regard.

"There is more than a doubt as to the identity of these bodies, which is entertained in the minds of the people generally."

DAHL IS DECLARED LEGALLY ELECTED MARINETTE SHERIFF

Doberstein Yields Office to Sheriff-elect Upon Order from Milwaukee Judge

MARINETTE, Wis. — With the withdrawal of John H. Doberstein, former sheriff of Marinette county, from the county jail here Tuesday, Marinette county's dual sheriff administration, extending over a period of 22 days, came to an end. A signed order, handed down in circuit court by Judge O. M. Fritz, Milwaukee, calling on Doberstein to surrender the office and jail to the sheriff-elect, Oscar Dahl, Peshtigo, ex-serviceman, was taken by the former law enforcement officer as final.

Marinette was the only county out of eight that was allowed to hold a special election after its November sheriff election was held illegal. This right was extended the northern county because of its previous steps which made an election possible by January 1.

Knocking on the door of the county jail on January 1, Dahl was told by Doberstein that the election was illegal and that he would refuse to surrender the jail. Dahl, however, returned when Doberstein was out and climbing through the basement window entered the cell section of the jail. When the sheriff returned to the jail he was locked out of the cell section by Dahl.

With the sheriff-elect in one section of the jail and the former sheriff in another the law of Marinette county was carried out, each refusing to surrender his possession until the decision by Judge Fritz.

ELKS TAKE CUDGEL AGAINST THE DRUG EVIL IN COUNTRY

La Crosse Lodge Passes Resolutions Asking for Campaign Against Dope

CALLS UPON THE PRESIDENT TO TAKE ACTION IN MATTER

Local Lodge Co-operating in Great National Movement

The La Crosse lodge of Elks, No. 300, has joined in the fight against the drug evil. Co-operating with other lodges of the order in this country, No. 300, at its last meeting, passed a resolution strongly condemning the traffic in narcotic drugs and calling upon the president to set aside a week to be called "national anti-dope week" to assist in the campaign to eradicate the evil. The resolution follows:

"Whereas, inconvertible evidence proves that despite existing laws in this country, traffic in the narcotic drugs known as opium, morphine and cocaine continues to spread misery and want, not only in the United States, but throughout the world, and

"Whereas, it has been conclusively shown that the use of the above habit forming drugs is annually showing an alarming increase despite laws to the contrary; therefore be it

"Resolved, by the La Crosse lodge, No. 300, of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, in meeting assembled, that the president of the United States be respectfully requested to set aside a week to be known as 'national anti-dope week,' and that he not only set in renewed motion every possible governmental agency whose function it is to stamp out this evil, but that he cause to be gathered together an international conference of competent men and women who will formulate plans and methods of procedure looking towards the eradication of the above evil, not only in the United States but in every other country in the world."

BODY IN SOUTH IS NOT THAT OF FLEEING BANKER

Corpse Identified as Sheboygan Man and Not Clyde K. Stephens

SHEBOYGAN, Wis.—Morris Prinderville of Sheboygan is the "man of mystery" whose body was found on a lonely wharf at Bay St. Louis, Miss., on Sunday, and who at first was believed to be Clyde K. Stephens, missing Montfort bank cashier.

This was the conclusion of officials here Wednesday night after an exchange of telegrams with the Louisiana town. The information obtained pointed directly to the Sheboygan man, who left here two months ago, as clews aiding in the identification increased.

Charles Fairweather, lifelong friend of Prinderville, declared that from the description of the man he was certain that it was Prinderville. Here received a letter from Prinderville, postmarked "Bay St. Louis," and mailed on Saturday, the day that the curiosity of the postmaster of the Gulf city was aroused by the man's queer actions.

Prinderville left Sheborgan two months ago for Hot Springs, Ark., Fairweather said. In a letter received from Bay St. Louis, Prinderville said that he was on his way to Mobile, Ala., from New Orleans.

RUHR STRIKE SPREADS FAST

FRENCH SEND WEYGAND TO TIGHTEN REIN

Marshal Foch's Chief of Staff Sent to Stiffen up Work of De Goutte in the Ruhr

PLANS REPORTED TO MEAN ISOLATION FROM GERMANY

Send Railroad Technicians and Others to Ruhr for Long Stay

DUESSELDORF.—By The Associated Press.—General Weygand, Marshal Foch's chief of staff, arrived here from Paris Thursday and immediately went into conference with General Degoutte to consider the application of sterner military measures against the Germans.

"France is here to stay until she gets complete satisfaction from Germany," said M. Le Trocquer, minster of public works, who accompanied General Weygand.

Plan Stiffer Methods

PARIS.—By The Associated Press.—The departure of General Weygand and M. Le Trocquer, minister of public works, for the Ruhr late Wednesday night, marks the opening of the second phase of the occupation, it is believed here.

When the French entered the Ruhr, the Paris government assumed that the Germans would accept the move as inevitable, but events have proved the contrary. Therefore, the French, it is declared, are about to change their methods.

In the first place the occupation will be put on a systematic basis. According to some reports the occupied territory will be practically cut off from the rest of Germany. Secondly, it is understood that M. Coste, head of the occupying mission, has complained to the government that General Degoutte does not collaborate satisfactorily with him. Lastly, it is pointed out that the Rhineland commission acts independently of M. Coste and General Degoutte.

Expect Weygand to Command

It is to get reports on these points that M. Le Trocquer and Gen. Weygand have undertaken their mission. Consequently, nothing definite will be decided until they return, but the press generally assumes that General Weygand will take command of the occupation as a whole. M. Loucheur, the former minister of liberated regions, is said to have declined to undertake the task.

That France contemplates immediate steps to strengthen her hand in the occupied area is seen in the announcement that 3,750 railway men have been sent to the Ruhr "for a period of instruction of limited duration." It was generally expected that the services of other technical groups will be utilized when General Weygand and the minister of public works have looked the ground over.

MILLER SLATED AS U. S. ATTORNEY IN EASTERN WISCONSIN

MADISON, Wis.—Word was received here Thursday from Washington that Senator I. L. Lenroot announced that he would recommend R. J. White of Milwaukee as the United States marshal for the eastern Wisconsin district. Edward W. Miller of Marinette was recommended as district attorney to succeed District Attorney Sawyer, resigned.

The advice said that these nominations were approved by the attorney general and would go to the senate immediately.

K. C.'s GIVE $50,000 TO TUBERCULAR VETS

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. — American Legion national headquarters announced here Thursday that the Knights of Columbus has set aside a fund of $50,000 for the relief of thousands of tubercular former service men who have migrated to the southwest and who at present are in destitute circumstances. The fund, which was authorized following a recent joint survey by the two organizations, will be administered by the legion, it was said.

The legion will provide finances to care for the veterans in the communities where the problem is the greatest, according to Claude J. Harris, director of the Legion's national service division.

AMERICANS REACH ANTWERP TO BOARD SHIP FOR THE U. S.

Yanks Given Warm Welcome by Citizens Upon Arrival in Belgian Town

ANTWERP.—The first of the two special trains carrying the American troops arrived here at 6:20 o'clock Thursday morning, followed an hour later by the second train. The cars were switched at once to the dock where the St. Mihiel was tied up and the men began to board the steamer immediately.

A hearty welcome from the Belgian nation awaited the homeward bound American troops upon their arrival here.

M. Deveze the minister of war paid a glowing tribute to America's part in the great conflict. The minister recalled the generous aid accorded by America to the civil population of Belgium, and said in conclusion:

"We wish you bon voyage toward your America, which, in the darkest hours we felt to be so near us in thought and heart."

COURT MARTIAL OF COAL BARONS FANS THE BLAZE

Trains all Halt and Near-riot Narrowly Averted at Mayence by French Cavalry

OFFICIALS SPIRITED AWAY FROM RUHR BY FRENCH POLICE

Poles Reported Preparing to Send Technical Workers for Mines

DUESSELDORF. — By The Associated Press.—Virtually the entire railway system of the Ruhr valley and the occupied territory immediately adjoining was paralyzed Thursday by a strike of the railwaymen.

The disorganization of public utilities, which has been slowly spreading throughout the Ruhr since the beginning of the Franco-Belgian occupation, thus received a great impetus.

The main rail lines on both the Right and Left banks of the Rhine are tied up along a stretch of nearly 50 miles between Wesel to the north of Duesseldorf and Cologne, south of this city. The Paris-Berlin and Warsaw-Paris expresses are stalled in the Duesseldorf station. Two trains of foodstuffs from Holland were reported the only movement by rail into the interior of the Ruhr during the morning.

DUESSELDORF.— By the Associated Press.—The railroad strike has spread with great activity since the mine directors were fined at Mayence, and Thursday it was effective over the greater part of the Ruhr.

North, south or east bound passenger trains left Duesseldorf after six o'clock Thursday morning and the Paris-Berlin train was stalled in the station here. Service to Essen was completely interrupted.

Take Over Police Work

MAYENCE. — By the Associated Press.—General Marschal, commanding the French post here, has issued a proclamation declaring that henceforth all local German police would be under the authority of the French military. This step, the proclamation said, was taken because the authorities failed to make any effort to repress a demonstration Wednesday that followed the conviction of the German mine directors, and narrowly escaped becoming a riot.

French cavalry finally dispersed the rioters and is now patrolling the city.

Thousands of Germans, mostly youths, began marching through the streets singing patriotic songs, about 8 o'clock. The objective of all was the hotels where the French officers are quartered.

In front of the Holland hotel the crowd spied two French infantry officers and began booing. Hotel officers succeeded in saving them from molestation. A score of French officers were in the dining room at the time.

Insult French Officers

Attempting to follow the two young officers, the rioters broke the glass doors of the hotel and some of the bravest ventured inside, returning with palms and shrubs as trophies, at which the crowd hurrahed.

Some Germans climbed to the windows of the office of the porter, where there were some French officers. The rioters insulted the officers to their faces, but the latter ignored them, keeping remarkably cool. Hotel employes again saved the Frenchmen.

The crowds took up the march, singing "Victory over France." A French officer alighted from a street car with his wife, but the crowd did not molest them.

Cavalry Scatters Rioters

A few minutes later, while passing the Hotel Grande Bretagne, the rioters, angered by French and British flags under a glass case in front of the hotel, smashed the case and also twelve windows.

The alarm had been given at the French barracks by this time, however, and a squadron of cavalry cantered up the street, followed by other cavalry patrols.

Officials Disappear

BERLIN—Dr. Schlibk Schlutis, president of the state finance department, and Dr. Von Raiffeisen, president of the state mines administration, have been removed from Mayence to an unknown destination by the members of the criminal police, a Mayence message says. They had previously been informed that they were to be expelled from the occupied area. They were sentenced by a French court martial Wednesday to serve a year in prison, but these penalties were suspended.

JOB SITUATION IN 1922 BETTER THAN IN PREVIOUS YEAR

Slight Decrease Reported for December But Conditions Improve as a Whole

MADISON, Wis.—Employment as a whole in Wisconsin showed a slight decrease during the last month, despite increases in seasonal industries, the state industrial commission reported Thursday. It concluded that for the year 1922 employment conditions were improved throughout Wisconsin when compared with the previous year.

"While it is true that the number of factory workers increased 1.1 per cent, logging employes 12.9 per cent and retail trade sales force 13.8 per cent, all lines of construction showed considerable decreases," the commission said. "There were 17.1 per cent fewer employes engaged in building construction, 34.5 per cent less in highway construction and 18 per cent less in railroad construction.

Factory employment showed increases in pig iron and rolling mill products, furniture manufacturing, tanning, paper mill work, clothing and meat packing.

The cost of living in December increased only three-tenths of one per cent, according to the commission report, and is now 1.6 per cent less than it was in January, 1922, and 22.3 per cent less than in July, 1920.

Average weekly earnings in factories were $23.36 in December, compared with $23.59 in November, and $19.82 in January, 1922.

RECOGNIZE VALUE OF TRAVELLING MEN IN DEVELOPING CITIES

MARINETTE, Wis.—The importance of the commercial traveller in the development of a municipality is being recognized by the Chamber of Commerce of both Marinette and Menominee. They have issued invitations to all travelling men residing at either of the twin cities to be present at a banquet to be held here Saturday, January 27, at which time various problems concerning the cities will be discussed.

This move on the part of Marinette and Menominee commercial organizations is believed to be the first move in the line of creating better conditions for the travelling men in their relations to their home town.

FILES CLAIM FOR DAMAGE BY SKUNK TO HIS HENCOOP

CHIPPEWA FALLS, Wis.—A bill for $103.75 for alleged damages to his hen roost by skunks was sent to Assemblyman J. G. Millar by a farmer living near Colfax. The damages are claimed from the state because skunks are protected by law and they got in their nefarious work through the legal inability of the farmer to shoot them. The bill is perfectly valid according to Assemblyman Millar but he fears that skunk claims may grow to bothersome proportions.

DRINK WATER TO HELP WASH OUT KIDNEY POISON

If Your Back Hurts Begin Taking Salts

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys. Help your kidneys with a mild, harmless salts which stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of good water — you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate clogged kidneys.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, which everyone should take now and then to help keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this; also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

WITH WISE MEN

He that walketh with wise men shall be wise, but a companion of fools shall be destroyed.—Proverbs 13: 20.

Labor as Capital

TWO members of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers have been elected to the directorate of the Empire Trust company, a great financial institution in New York, after the organization bought a big chunk of stock. Warren Stone, chief of the Brotherhood, says that in addition to this entrance into the capitalistic field, the Brotherhood will start a big bank all of its own in New York City, with branches all over the metropolis. You can't talk "class war" to Mr. Stone and his engineers, or bunk them with talk about the criminality of capital. They are capitalists themselves in a big way, and like other capitalists they are seeking to make the most of their wealth. They can see other ways than revolution to give the workers a voice in the direction of industry—ways entirely possible under our present organization. The Engineers are buying in, just as any other wealthy combination can if it cares to. Stock in most of the great institutions which it is the fashion to regard with suspicion can be purchased in the market. Few of them are actually controlled by the men whose names are popularly referred to as czars of wealth and industry. By clubbing together through their protective organizations, the workers could, as the Engineers have done, obtain powerful representation, eventually even control, perhaps. One wonders if that way of using their money would not be more profitable to the workers in the long run, and more comfortable to society, than expensive and crippling strikes. Capital organizes—why shouldn't labor? And why shouldn't labor make use of the tools with which capital works? There is no patent or monopoly on the system.

Stupid Business

THE government of Bavaria sends word to France that they cannot be responsible for the safety of the French representative there so long as the French remain in the Ruhr. Some outburst of popular indignation in Munich, they are afraid, will lead to an outbreak and demonstration against the Frenchman.

Elsewhere in Germany such a situation would be less significant. But in Munich it is a sad blow to France. Paris has been trying ever since 1918 to split off Bavaria and her neighboring states from the German reich, in order to set up a "buffer state" under French tutelage that would practically give France control of the Rhine.

France, in invading the Ruhr, has made the mistake that Bismarck warned statesmen against. She has forgotten the "imponderables"—the human reactions of mankind to political maneuvers. Bavarians speak German, and though they dislike Prussia intensively they are more German at heart than they are French. By driving her spear into the heart of Germany France has doomed her "buffer state" project.

It might be worth the loss if the invasion of the Ruhr were to collect the German debt. But all it has done thus far is to stop German payments on reparations and cut coal deliveries from Germany to a quarter of what France was getting before she went in.

Poor business—stupid statesmanship.

Will They Fight?

GREAT BRITAIN and Turkey, unable to agree about Mosul, begin to talk of war. It will be war about oil, if it comes. Mosul is the biggest new oil field that has been discovered recently in any place accessible to European nations. England, by making war on the Turks in Mesopotamia during the world struggle, and by setting up a native state based on Arab distrust and dislike of the Turks, got the inside track. Because oil seems to her a necessity for operating the fleet upon which her national existence depends in a world of hostile countries, England is prepared to go to war to keep the inside track. That is—the English government is ready to fight. Whether the English people are is something else. Lloyd George went down and out in a hurry when his government hovered on the brink of war with the Turks at the Dardanelles. He had to surrender control of the straits, Constantinople and Thrace to the Moslem, after declaring he would never give them up, because the folks back home wouldn't fight for them. Will Bonar Law's government find them more willing to fight for Mosul?

Counter-Irritant

THE French have been backing the Turks in their controversy with England. They wanted to keep the British lion busy with his own affairs so he couldn't interfere with what they proposed doing to Germany. It is quite possible that the stiffening of the Turkish position on Mosul recently could be traced, if the facts were all available, to Paris. The French have been treading on the lion's toes in the Cologne area, ignoring British control of the district and doing as they pleased with the Germans against British policy. London dispatches say the British are getting restless about it, and preparing to take steps to stop it. Can't you see Paris sending a hurry call to Mustapha Kemal at Angora to bristle up to John Bull and keep him too busy to interfere in Germany?

Bughouse

NOW, as always, there's talk of revising the calendar. Many plans are suggested. The favorite is for a year of 13 months. A bill is before congress, providing for an international conference on calendar revision. Can you imagine the confusion we'd have for at least ten years if a new calendar were installed? Some folks still are writing "1922" instead of "1923." Our present calendar has become a habit, a brain rut, that would be next to impossible to forget. One reason our big problems remain unsolved is because we are forever wasting time snooping around petty things—like the calendar, which, while not altogether satisfactory, is the most perfect thing we have, next to mathematics.

Holding

IT may make you scowl to learn that merchandise exports from our country last year slumped to less than 3832 million dollars, compared with 8228 millions in the record year, 1920. However, exports in 1913 totaled only 2484 millions. So 1922, compared with 1913, showed an increase of 54 per cent. That just about matches the average increase of wholesale prices since before the war. It again calls attention to the fact that fluctuations in our foreign trade have been chiefly due to price movements. It's a money hoax.

Polly's Nest Egg

By KATE EDMONDS

Polly Turner stood in the door of her little teahouse and glared at the automobiles flashing along the road beyond.

"Why can't they see the sign and come here?" she thought dismally. "For three whole days I have waited, with waffle batter spoiling to be used, delicious little cakes waiting to be eaten, chickens waiting to be fried and only one lone woman coming to take tea—and she turned out to be the agent for a chocolate concern!"

Her dearest friend, Marion Marsh, laughed merrily. "Poor Polly!" she teased. "You have forgotten that I was your first patron."

"No, I have not forgotten you, darling, you are my first patron, my daily patron, and you must be tired to death of this continuous performance; you have consumed miles of bread and butter and gallons of tea."

Marion got up and pulled on her gloves. She was a beautiful girl, tall and fair, with steady grey eyes that shone softly on her friend. Marion was rich and generous, and if she had her way Polly would never work a day, but would come and be her dear sister, for Marion was an only child.

"I've simply got to do something," said independent Polly, waving a good-by as Marion's little car sped down the road. She watched the car down the private road that led past the tea shop, saw it turn the corner under the sign-board into the main road.

"Why cannot they see the sign and come up here?" thought Polly desperately. "If they came once they would come again. If I do say it myself, I can make the best waffles and nicest cakes in the country, and as for fried chicken, mmm!"

If Polly had not seen the sign lying by the road that night it is probable that her tea shop would have quietly died and this story never would have been written. But she did see the sign, and from that time on she believed in signs—so she said.

The sign read "Detour Here," and had been thrown aside by careless road menders.

"Finders Keepers," panted Polly as she toiled up the hill to the little tea shop, which represented the tiny nest egg which Polly had put aside for the future. "A nest egg should hatch out a 'golden future,' Polly had declared when she hung out her cheerful shingle, but today she felt that she was facing defeat.

Polly was skilful with paint and brushes and when she had repainted the sign a red building, "Detour Here To Polly's Tea Shop," with a very pink head and finger pointing up to the rosy bungalow built by the nest egg. Nailing a sharpened stick to the back of the sign she hurried out and planted it in the ground on the slope so that motorists passing north and south might read it and turn up the smooth by-road that led past Polly's.

Early the next morning she was up and working hard to prepare for the rush of people she expected to come. Marion drove over with her arms full of flowers and stopped for a cup of tea. She remained until 9 o'clock, and sympathized with Polly.

"I'm might have had one, anyway," sobbed Polly.

"Hush-h," warned Marion, "some one is coming now!"

A large motor car flashed into view and stopped behind Marion's small car. Two young men alighted, regarded the sign with friendly eyes and entered, standing with bared head before a demurely smiling hostess.

"Are we too late to have something hot?" asked the dark one, with a pleasant smile.

"No, indeed," assured Polly, and having taken their order hastened into the little kitchen behind the screen. Marion turned around and smiled at them, managing a look of surprise.

"Why, Jeff Lacomb, I thought you were on your way to Boston."

"I am, Marion," he grinned. "All roads lead to Boston, and Tom and I only stopped for a bite to eat."

"Did you go over to the club?" she inquired guardedly.

"Surely did, and there will be a rush here as soon as the tournament is over."

"We are the pathfinders," remarked Tom Dalton. "By the way, I don't believe Miss Turner remembered me. I met her last summer in the mountains."

"I'll introduce you all over again," promised Marion as she went into the kitchen to help Polly, but her last look and soft smile were for Jeff Lacomb whose ring she wore on the third finger of her left hand.

Jeff and Tom had just reached delicious cups of coffee and ice cream when the first influx of guests arrived from the country club. Within fifteen minutes the tea shop was crowded and Polly and Marion, ably assisted by Jeff and Tom, were flying from table to table, while Marion's mother, who had miraculously appeared on the scene, gathered in the money and made change in a most efficient manner. She graciously collected all the compliments that were uttered regarding Polly's delicious cooking. She reserved tables for some who were coming for tea the next day and made arrangements for a luncheon party another day. In the meantime newly arriving guests were carrying trays out to the pleasant veranda or into their motors, and everybody had the loveliest time in a very informal way.

After the very last one had gone, even kind Mrs. Marsh, the four young people looked at one another with sparkling eyes. Polly had just counted the bag of money that Mrs. Marsh had given her.

"Seventy-five dollars," she said in an awe-struck tone, and then happy tears came to her eyes. "You have all been so good to me," she half sobbed. "You have made a detour out of your busy ways to help me and you are such good sorts."

"Odd sorts!" finished Tom soberly.

"Time for Miss Turner to have something to eat folks," he suggested, pulling forward a chair for tired little Polly. "I suggest that you two get her something to eat, and I will talk to her—for we have much time to make up."

So ardently did he make up for lost time that when Marion and Jeff appeared with an appetizing meal Polly sighed, then she blushed as she met Tom's serious gaze. Marion and Jeff smiled at each other and stole away to sit on the veranda. They knew that if Tom Dalton had his way the tea shop would not last long—and that after all, Polly's nest egg would bring forth a golden future.

PRIMARY VOTE ON PRESIDENT URGED IN JOHNSON BILL

Convention System Not Truly Representative Declares Badger Senator

DRASTIC BILL FOR LICENSING AUTO DRIVERS IS INTRODUCED

Would Require Indemnity Bond Before Permit is Granted

MADISON, Wis.—A memorial to Congress asking for a direct primary vote to elect the President and Vice-president instead of the present convention system was presented in the upper house by Senator O. H. Johnson of Gratiot, Thursday morning.

"Conventions do not reflect the sentiment and desires of the electors in their respective parties," declares Senator Johnson in the resolution, "for the reason that delegates to such conventions represent varying and unequal numbers of constituents and because such conventions are subject to political manipulation and dictation."

Licensing of all automobile drivers and drastic penalties for drivers who fail to stop after injuring pedestrians is the subject of two bills offered in the lower house by Assemblyman Peterson, Milwaukee.

Imprisonment in the state penitentiary from one to five years is the penalty provided in the first Peterson bill for auto drivers who fail to stop after accidents.

Automobile drivers would be required to pass a mental and physical examination under a second bill. The fee for such examinations would be $2 and minor children would be disbarred from driving a car. Before granting of the license the driver would also be required to obtain an indemnity bond, certified either by himself or two freeholders, as a means of protecting the public against inability to collect for damages done in accidents in which the driver is held responsible.

Assemblyman Clinton G. Price, Manston, introduced a resolution Thursday memorializing Congress to call a conference of neutral nations with the view of preventing further warfare.

Mr. Price declares in his resolution that such a coalition could perform a most humanitarian work in the solution of present world problems. He cites the congressional record on the vote on the Disarmament question in 1921 as showing that the people of America do not desire war.

RIVOLI TROMBONIST PLAYS CLASSIC SOLO

By his rendition of the "Evening Star," trombone solo from Tannhauser, Sam Snap of the Rivoli orchestra proves himself to be not only a schooled musician but an elegant interpreter of Wagnerian music, in the current program. His playing of this number, with the pipe organ accompaniment by Walter Goetzinger, produces a very pleasing effect and is being fully enjoyed and appreciated by the Rivoli patrons.

Dandruff Soon Ruins The Hair

Girls—if you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It does no good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and scratching of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. Four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.

Don't Let That Cold Turn Into "Flu"

Rub on Good Old Musterole.

That cold may turn into "Flu," Grippe or, even worse, Pneumonia, unless you take care of it at once.

Rub good old Musterole on the congested parts and see how quickly it brings relief.

Colds are merely congestion. Musterole, made from pure oil of mustard, camphor, menthol and other simple ingredients, is a counter-irritant which stimulates circulation and helps break up the cold.

As effective as the messy old mustard plaster, it does the work without the blister.

Just rub it on with your fingertips. You will feel a warm tingle as it enters the pores, then a cooling sensation that brings welcome relief.

CABBAGE SHORTAGE IS PREDICTED BY FEDERAL BUREAU

Decreased Acreage Planted to Cabbages in Florida and Texas

CHICAGO.—A shortage of cabbage was predicted Wednesday by the United States bureau of agricultural economics due partly to the decreased acreage of cabbage planted this season by Florida and Texas, the two leading winter shipping states.

Florida farmers this season planted only 1,800 acres as compared with 11,000 last year. Instead of shipping approximately 3,000 cars this season, as they did last year, this season's shipments from the two states were estimated at less than 1,000 cars.

This reduction was said to be partly off-set by a 150 car gain in the second crop from California, but the total cabbage supply was reported week by week less than last year when old cabbage prices were twice as high, ranging from $38 to $50 a ton as compared to $20 to $30 as at present. Old cabbage during the week ending today sold from $20 to $30 a ton. Advance sales in western New York for February delivery were $5 to $7 above current prices indicating a confident tone for the future. Less new and more old cabbage was expected on the market for the remainder of the season. It was estimated that 4,500 cars of storage cabbage were available. During the week new cabbage showed a decline due to increasing shipments but old cabbage held firm, advancing $2 to $5 a ton in some markets.

While shipments of southern vegetables showed gains, the total movement of ten products was 8,821 cars, 1,170 less than the preceding week.

DEER TAKES WALK DOWN STREET IN PRAIRIE DU CHIEN

PRAIRIE DU CHIEN, Wis.—A wild deer wandered into the city of Prairie du Chien. It passed in front of The Press office and out onto Bluff street. Several men tried to surround it and drive it back into the enclosure back of Zeman & Bittner's store, but she was too fleet for them and made a get away. It looked like the "wild and woolly days" we used hear about.

The deer was said to have wandered over from the Wisconsin State park, having crossed the Wisconsin river on the ice.

A Stubborn Cough Loosens Right Up

This home-made remedy is a wonder for quick results. Easily and cheaply made.

Here is a home-made syrup which millions of people have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up stubborn coughs. It is cheap and simple, but very prompt in action. Under its healing, soothing influence, chest soreness goes, phlegm loosens, breathing becomes easier, tickling in throat stops and you get a good night's restful sleep. The usual throat and chest colds are conquered by it in 24 hours or less. Nothing better for bronchitis, hoarseness, croup, throat tickle, bronchial asthma or winter coughs.

To make this splendid cough syrup, pour 2½ ounces of Pinex into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup and shake thoroughly. If you prefer, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, you get a full pint—a family supply—of much better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for three times the money. Keeps perfectly and children love its pleasant taste.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, known the world over for its prompt healing effect upon the membranes.

To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

BE PRETTY! TURN GRAY HAIR DARK

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago, the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is mussy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at a small cost.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.

HAVE COLOR IN CHEEKS

Be Better Looking—Take Olive Tablets

If your skin is yellow—complexion pallid—tongue coated—appetite poor—you have a bad taste in your mouth—a lazy, no-good feeling—you should take Olive Tablets.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—a substitute for calomel—were prepared by Dr. Edwards after 17 years of study.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color.

To have a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days you must get at the cause.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet have no dangerous after effects.

They start the bile and overcome constipation. Take one or two nightly and note the pleasing results. Millions of boxes are sold annually at 15c and 30c.

COLDS

"Pape's Cold Compound" Breaks a Cold in Few Hours

Don't stay stuffed-up! Quit blowing and snuffling! Take "Pape's Cold Compound" every two hours until three doses are taken. The first dose opens clogged-up nostrils and air passages of head; stops nose running; relieves headache, dullness, feverishness, sneezing. The second and third doses usually break up the cold completely and end all grippe misery.

BEAT UP OUTSIDERS WHO COME CALLING UPON THEIR GIRLS

Kansas Town Faces Suit for $10,000 Damages from Victim

HUTCHINSON, Kan. — The policy of "Little River girls for Little River boys" adopted by a number of young men at Little River, Kansas, may cost that town in the neighborhood of $10,000, it became known Wednesday.

Alleging that he had been whipped with barrel staves by a crowd of young men at Little River when he called upon a young lady there, Lerton Morris, Lyons, Kansas, has filed suit against the town for $10,000 under the Kansas mob law. It is alleged that young men of Little River have resented outsiders calling on the Little River girls and have adopted stern measures to discourage the practice. The Kansas mob law provides that a city or county in which a person suffers at the hands of three or more persons acting in concert is liable for damages.

SOUGHT LONG TIME FOR VIOLATION OF THE LIQUOR LAW

PRESTON, Minn.—Joseph Lee of Fillmore county, sought since last August on a charge of illegal possession of liquor, was arrested by Sheriff Cyrus Christianson of Fillmore county Tuesday at the farm of Henry Johns, eight miles northwest of Rushford. He was brought before Justice M. Eischen and pleaded guilty to the charge. He was fined $100 and costs.

DOKKIES FROM LA CROSSE LEAD WINONA'S BALL

K. P. Frolic Up-River Attended By Many From This City

A large number of La Crosse people attended the Annual Ball of the Winona Club, Dramatic Order of Khorassan 'the social order of the Knights of Pythias, given at the Armory at Winona last evening. The La Crosse guests represented Temple No. 197, with which are affiliated the Winona and Alma clubs. Visitors from St. Paul and Minneapolis were also present.

Special lighting arrangements in the Armory and elaborate decorations made the ball a spectacle of color. The dancing began at 8:30 o'clock and a grand march at 9, when members of the royal divan of the La Crosse Temple in full regalia led the march. One of the features of the occasion was an oriental dance.

The festivities opened in Winona with the serving of supper to the out-of-town guests and members of the Winona club at Castle Hall, beginning at 6:30. The Pythian sisters served the meal, during which Christ. Iansen's Dokey orchestra played a concert program.

MISS KIENZLE WEDS MADISON MAN IN ELABORATE SETTING

AT eight o'clock Wednesday evening, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Kienzle, 226 North Twelfth street, Alice Isabelle Kienzle became the bride of Porter Ackerman Williams of Madison. Mr. D. L. Halversen of Madison was the best man. Rev. H. G. Magelssen read the double ring ceremony, which took place in a candlelighted pergola of smilax and palms. Lohengrin's wedding march was played by Miss Marguerite Gantenbein, and during the ceremony Mendelssohn's Spring Song was played.

The decorations, by Carl E. Schafer, were most elaborate and beautiful. The fire-place in the living room was banked with palms and ferns, and pink roses and carnations were in profusion. The dining room predominated in crystal grey and pink, with sweet peas and candles on the buffet and table. In the hall, the railings and stairway were covered with smilax.

After the wedding there was a reception to fifty friends and relatives. A buffet luncheon was served at ten o'clock. Miss Margaret Wilhelm presided at the coffee urn, assisted by Miss Kathleen Grams. Mrs. Joel Stokke served the ice cream, assisted by Miss Marguerite Gantenbein. Mr. and Mrs. Williams left last evening for Chicago. After January 29th they will be at home at 229 Clifford Court, Madison.

The bride was exquisite in white satin trimmed with pearls. Her veil was Fiske style, with orange blossoms and pearls, and she wore white satin slippers with rhinestone buckles. She carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. Her going-away costume was a three-piece suit of sand color poiret twill with paisley blouse, and a hat of pale blue satin.

Miss Margaret Hummer, the maid of honor, wore peach colored satin and carried Columbia roses. Miss Ruth Kienzle, bridesmaid and sister of the bride, wore sapphire panne velvet and a silver head dress, and carried American Beauty roses. Mrs. Kienzle, mother of the bride, wore black satin and lace with a corsage of lavender sweet peas and pink roses. Mrs. Williams, mother of the groom, wore black chiffon velvet with corsage of roses and sweet peas.

The out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Berg, Miss Ruth Hummer, Miss Ruth Myhre, Miss Louise Searseth, Mrs. Albert Searseth and Mrs. Louis Rall, all of Galesville, Miss Hazel Young and Mr. D. L. Halversen of Madison, Mr. John Miller, of Milwaukee, Miss Hildegarde Voihrecht, Fountain City, and Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Williams, of Estherville, Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Kienzle entertained at a five-thirty o'clock dinner, Wednesday evening to the bridal party and immediate relatives.

The groom is well known in Madison, having graduated from the University of Wisconsin, 1922. He is a member of the Chi Phi fraternity. He is now employed as secretary and treasurer of the Security Bond company of Madison. Mrs. Williams is a graduate of the Lutheran Hospital School for Nurses, and has, for the last year been on the staff of nurses at the University Infirmary at Madison.

MISS AGNES Erickson entertained seventy-five guests at a one o'clock luncheon at the Stoddard Hotel on Wednesday. The dining room was lovely in pink and blue, with blue vases filled with pink roses. The tables were lighted by pink candles in blue candlesticks. A pleasing program featured the occasion when Mrs. J. F. Bartl sang, and Rudolf Kvelve played the violin, accompanied by Miss George, Mrs. L. J. Harper of Tomah and Mrs. Willard Ryan of Winona were out-of-town guests.

* * * *

MRS. M. A. GOFF, 2137 Cass street entertained for Miss Ivy Nation and Miss Emma Henlepp on Wednesday evening. Ten of the women members of the Normal School faculty were present. Steamer letters for the guests of honor were written.

* * * *

MR. MATTHEW Luehne was pleasantly surprised at his home, 625 Caledonia street, Monday evening, by a party of friends, and presented with many useful giffs. Lunch was served at ten o'clock. Those present were Mesdames and Messrs. A. Anderson, J. Fuchs, Wm. Butterfield, Nic Borcas, H. Hansen, G. Borcas, A. Hochbart, J. Stang, and M. Luehne and Misses Ruth Stang and Betty Hansen.

* * * *

MRS. Angeline Ash returned to La Crosse on Monday after spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Kenneda of Holmen. Among those who entertained for her during her visit were Mrs. Kenneda, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Boersma of Holmen and Mrs. Dresden of Midway.

* * * *

THE CARNATION circle will meet this evening with Mrs. Mont Nelson, 522 Cass street, at eight o'clock.

* * * *

THE IBSEN Club will be entertained on Friday afternoon at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. C. L. Lien, 927 Rose street.

* * * *

THE THURSDAY afternoon Crochet club surprised Mrs. Lena Martin, south Tenth street, Saturday evening. The guests were the Mesdames J. Verchota, J. Voudrashek, Joe Wagner, M. Justin, J. Hengel, M. Bickez J. Giefer and F. Michel. A delicious lunch was served at eleven o'clock.

FOR A DEBUTANTE

An unusually lovely dinner frock is of cream chiffon, trimmed with lace insertions edged with pearls. A wide crush girdle of blue satin has ends which reach below the hemline.

Society Buds Volunteer in Nurses' Role

Who says society girls lead useless lives?

Here's proof that they don't.

Acting as volunteer nurse at the Prospect Hill Shelter Home in New York is Margaret Starr, prominent in social circles.

The shelter home, the city's only refuge for well children, is supported by the Junior league, an organization of young women well known in society.

And these girls keep down expenses by doing duty themselves as nurses.

Last year 334 babies of sick mothers in hospitals were cared for by daughters of New York's "first families."

NEW MATERIAL

A new material that is showing signs of unusual popularity has velvet-like stripes on a sheer ground. It comes in white and all colors and color combinations.

NOVELTY IN VOIL

A new voile for this season has metallic dots sprinkled over its surface. It has also a border design in metallic figures.

FOR THE BLUE SERGE

Collars of white or tan satin, embroidered in cross-stitch or in peasant embroidery are a colorful touch on the blue serge frock.

MARRIAGE A LA MODE

In some parts of Switzerland where the people are very poor, the guests share the expense of a wedding. A collection is taken up, the bride herself passing the hat.

Monday is considered the lucky day for weddings and February the lucky month.

Few couples are defiant enough of superstition to be married in March or November.

Cheese Pudding

By BERTHA E. SHAPLEIGH of Columbia University.

1 pound mild cheese.
3 slightly beaten eggs.
1½ cups thin cream or top milk.
2 tablespoons butter.
1½ teaspoons salt.
1 teaspoon mustard.
Few grains cayenne.
Several slices buttered bread.

Line a buttered baking dish with the bread, cut into strips, touching each other. Fill dish with cheese and eggs mixed with milk and seasonings. Bake 30 minutes in a hot oven and serve immediately. With light, green salad, rolls and coffee, makes a delicious luncheon or supper combination.

Medium brown hair looks best of all after a Golden Glint Shampoo. —Adv.

UNUSUAL TRIMMING

A unique trimming seen on blouses and frocks as well as suits is oval buttons, covered with the material of the garment, set in pairs so they resemble leaves.

The well-regulated wardrobe will contain at least one white flannel skirt this coming summer, for wear with sweaters and separate blouses. It is more apt to be plain than pleated.

BELOVED HEAD OF H. S. LATIN DEPT. LEAVES

Miss Edna Wiegand, Popular Faculty Member, Goes to Milwaukee

With the resignation of Miss Edna Wiegand from the faculty of the High school, La Crosse loses one of its most popular and able teachers. Miss Wiegand leaves her position as head of the Latin Department in the High school at the end of this semester and goes to Milwaukee where she is to teach in the Latin department of the Washington High school.

Miss Wiegand has been tireless in her activities and interest for the young people of La Crosse during the five years of her teaching here. As one of the moving spirits in the organization of the social life of the school on a definite plan, she has served on the social committee. Students who have worked on the Booster have found her always ready with help and suggestions; and her originality has added zest to many a Class Day.

Though it is with regret that her students and confreere see her leave them it is gratifying to them that her departure brings great advancement to her.

No trouble to make— Very new and delicious

Jellied Tomato Ketchup

Heat 3 level cups sugar and 1 cup (½ pint) ketchup to a full boil, remove from fire and stir in ½ bottle (scant ½ cup) Certo.

Fig Jam

(Excellent for cake filling)

Place ½ lb. dried fruit in quart jar and cover with 2 cups water. Let stand 4 hours. Drain off and save all the water or syrup to mix with pulp (makes 3 cups). Run through meat grinder or chop fine. Mix fruit, syrup and juice of one lemon well in kettle, then stir in one bottle Certo and add 6 level cups (2½ lbs.) sugar. Place on fire and stir constantly to prevent scorching. In stirring, carry the wooden spoon over the entire bottom of kettle. Bring to full boil and boil one minute. Remove from fire and pour into glasses.

With CERTO (Surejell) you can make delicious jams and jellies from all canned or dried fruits or bottled fruit juices. Delicious grape jelly, new dainties like pineapple jam to spread on bread, etc., or mint jelly to add zest to meat course, are easily and quickly made.

Certo is Nature's own jellifying principle—a pure fruit pectin. It contains no gelatine nor preservative. Sold by grocers with free recipe book.

SEVEN PARDONS ARE GRANTED BY BLAINE 12 APPEALS DENIED

Two Men Given Absolute Pardons and Six Get Conditional Releases

MADISON, Wis.— Two absolute pardons, six conditional pardons, one deferred and 12 denied cases were announced by Governor John J. Blaine Thursday.

Henry Foss, convicted of murder in the first degree in Eau Claire county on July 6, 1909, and sentenced to Waupun prison for life, was given an absolute pardon.

Foss was granted a conditional pardon by Governor McGovern in 1914. Conditions were that he absolutely refrain from the use of intoxicating liquor and remain law-abiding. Judge Blum, Eau Claire, to whom he has been under parole for seven years, reports that he had fulfilled the demands of his parole.

Other cases considered are:

Harley G. Wilsar, Racine county, serving two years at state prison for embezzlement, granted conditional pardon.

Otto Falk, Milwaukee county, serving four years at state prison for larceny of automobile, given conditional pardon.

John Zwierkowski, Milwaukee, serving six months in house of correction for abandonment, given conditional pardon.

Jacob Frederick, Milwaukee, serving four years in house of correction for statutory offense, granted conditional pardon.

David J. Juhre, Milwaukee, serving three years at state prison, on a charge of burglary, given absolute pardon.

William Hargrave, Milwaukee, serving year at house of correction on statutory charge, given conditional pardon.

John T. Berg, Milwaukee, serving year in house of correction, given conditional pardon.

Edward Crawford, Milwaukee, serving five years at house of correction for burglary, denied pardon.

Gus Scharfenberg, Milwaukee, serving 18 months at house of correction for keeping house of ill fame, denied pardon.

Chalmers Yeager, serving 25 years in state prison for robbery, denied pardon.

Frank J. Witmeyer, serving seven years at state prison for embezzlement, denied pardon.

Charles Weghorn, Kenosha county, serving 18 months in state prison for a statutory offense, denied pardon.

Albert Jacobs, serving seven years at state prison for larceny from person at Milwaukee, denied pardon.

E. C. Morrison, Milwaukee, serving five years at state prison for larceny, denied pardon.

Roy Bowerman, Waupaca county, serving two years at state prison for statutory offense, denied pardon.

John Sass, serving five years at state prison for assault with intent to rape, denied pardon.

Raymond Rudy, Eau Claire county, serving seven years for burglary, denied pardon.

Everett Westbury, serving seven years at state prison for assault with intent to rob, denied pardon. The offense was committed at Madison.

Robert Scharte, Kenosha county, serving three years at Waupun for burglary, denied pardon.

Public Debate

THE MULDER PLAN

Mr. Editor,

Dear Sir: Suppose you allow me space for a little contribution to the Public Debate or bank column as some people call it. I always enjoy reading the articles and whether I agree or not. A writer has a right to his own opinion. Out of the past has come again agitation for a new causeway between the north and south sides of the city. Some of the readers will recall with me that a few years ago Mr. John Mulder, who was at the time a member of the common council, submitted a proposition for the construction of such a causeway. It seems to me that his proposition would satisfy the taxpayers and yet make an ideal road. The cost would not be over $20,000.00 at the most, whereas if the other plan were followed the cost of a road from George street to Twelfth street would reach a sum close to $400,000.00 and possibly more. I am not in favor of such a plan but I have said for years that a road from the Rubber Mills to the south side should be built. The Rubber Mills is the largest paying institution in the city for the laboring people, and as a large number of the employes of the mills live in the eastern part of the city it is a disadvantage for them to go such a long distance to work.

The suggestion I have referred to would eliminate all railroad crossings and would give all laborers coming from the east side of the city a short cut to the mills. The north side has a road to the mills but the south side has not. I do not say this merely to favor the Rubber Mills, for I do think that it would be a great benefit to the people who would come over the road and I think that the majority of the people will agree with me. The plan I am writing about would provide for the extension of St. Andrews street east to the Green Bay tracks and the filling in of the west side of the Green Bay tracks as far as the pumping station, which could continue on to La Crosse street and on to the normal school. This filling could be done very easily by the aid of a switch engine and cars from one of the railroad companies and in this way the fill could be made in a very short time.

Under this plan no railroad crossings to make and only one small bridge would have to be built. I am in favor of this plan as the cheapest and better of the two.

Respectfully submitted,
G. H. KRELL,

Y. W. C. A. INVITES PUBLIC TO VISIT CLASSES AND CLUBS

January 25th to February 1st Visiting Week at Local Institution

The program for Friday in the Y. W. C. A. "visiting week," during which the public is invited to attend all classes and clubs of the association will be as follows:

Girl Reserves of the Washington corps will meet at 4:30. Following the business session, the members will report on honors earned during the past month. Advisers of this group are Misses Helen Uhl and Clara Ballhorn. Officers are: President, Elizabeth Wodzynski; vice-president, Margaret Blumer; secretary, Dorothea Rosenwater; treasurer, Mildred Erickson.

At two-thirty there will be the regular vocational school gym class, and in the evening Girl Reserve basketball players will occupy the floor, Logan Junior highs playing at seven o'clock and Vocational girls at eight. Miss Leona Lee is coach.

TRY THIS ON YOUR RADIO; CHURCH FINDS IT HELPED

CHICAGO.—A new one has been discovered, that should, the inventor says, be patented before tax raising legislatures get wind of it.

At a recent church service, which was broadcasted by radio, an appeal to "put something in the plate" was made over the wireless.

The church is now richer by $175 as a result. Most of it came anonymously in the mail. The lowest amount was 10 cents, and several sent $25 checks.

PICKLE MAY OUST CRADLE ROCKER AS WORLD RULER

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.—At last history has paid its due to the pickle.

The dainty morsel has turned the course of world events more than once, delegates at the National Pickle Packers' association were told on Monday. They won Henry VIII for Catherine of Aragon, and Cleopatra for Marc Antony.

It was denied, however, that Napoleon lost Waterloo because he failed to eat a pickle that day.

THEY'RE GETTING SO THICK, IT'S DIFFICULT TO AVOID

NEW YORK.—They are going to put out traffic cops to regulate the shipping on Three Mile limit.

The w. k. limit is lit up by a couple dozen rum boats at present, according to Capt. William Prothero of the Scythia, which has just docked after dodging through the liquor vessels.

A new law of the sea has been promulgated by the captain: "Thou shalt not run down a rum boat." The captain admits it is hard to avoid these days.

SANFORD NAMED ON SUPREME COURT BENCH

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Edward T. Sanford of Tennessee, a federal district judge since 1908, was nominated by President Harding to be an associate justice of the supreme court to fill the vacancy caused by Justice Pitney's retirement.

KRENN PAYS FINE

CHICAGO.—Edward Krenn, the Swiss architect brought to this country by Mrs. Edith Rockefeller McCormick and whose reported engagement to her never has been confirmed, paid $9.50 for violating a parking ordinance.

WOULD BAR CAMPAIGN CONTRIBUTIONS FROM FOREIGN COUNTRIES

Duncan Resolution Asks Congress to Amend Corrupt Practices Act

MADISON, Wis.—Congress is memorialized to amend the federal corrupt practices act so as to prohibit "any campaign committee, organization, or individual from receiving any contribution from any foreign government, or any agent thereof to promote the election of any candidate for the office of president, presidential elector, U. S. senator, or member of congress," in a resolution introduced into the assembly Thursday by Assemblyman Thomas M. Duncan, socialist, Milwaukee.

The resolution would punish by disbarment from office and by forfeiture of his rights of citizenship, any candidate who received such a contribution.

Assertion is made that in both the presidential campaign of 1916 and of 1920, the fiscal agent of the British government in this country, contributed $50,000 to the campaign fund of the republican candidates for president.

RELIC SHOWS EGYPT FLAPPER TATTOOED

LUXOR, Egypt.—Flappers who used to flit about the banks of the Nile 4,000 years ago were tatooed.

This secret of ancient feminity was revealed on Sunday when archaeologists from the Metropolitan museum, New York, unearthed the body of an Egyptian princess, believed to have been one of the beauties of the first Thebian dynasty, back in 2150 B. C.

The neck and bosom of the princess bore bluish symbols representing a noble caste. The body was well preserved and the hair and teeth intact.

She is believed to have been one of the favorite court ladies of the Menthruhotep kings.

JUMPS FROM WINDOW TO ESCAPE BURNS; KILLED

MILWAUKEE. Leaping out of a fourth story window to escape being scalded by a boil-over of a huge kettle of soap, Charles Gorman, 35 a millwright was killed here Tuesday. Harold H. Schaper, 27, a graduate of the University of Wisconsin and John Kreiner, 31, a millright, were severely burned by the hot soap. Gorman in leaping struck a wire which severed his jugular vein.

VETERANS COMMEND HARDING'S VETO OF HIGHER PENSIONS

MILWAUKEE, Wis.—President Harding's veto of the new pension bill is commended in a resolution adopted by E. B. Wolcott post G. A. R. While the veterans express appreciation for the intent of the measure they believe that it will work detrimentally to their interest, because they fear that mercenary inclined women will marry single soldiers past 70 years merely in hope of becoming early beneficiaries of pensions.

URGES UNIFORMS FOR HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS

MILWAUKEE, Wis. — Uniform dress regulations for high school girls were advocated by alderman John Doerfler, who said that he might take the matter up with the school board.

"The style craze which has gripped the girls of high school age has made even a moderate education so expensive that many poor parents cannot afford to send their daughters to high school," the alderman said. "Boys are more callous to the niceties of dress. It would be better etiquette for wealthy parents to see that their daughters of high school age avoid extravagant dress in school so that hardships are not placed on poorer parents."

GETS $500 FOR LOAN OF $50 TO SOLDIER

ALBANY, N. Y.—Three years ago J. M. Bundrick of Albany "fell" for a hard luck story.

A few days ago the bread he cast on the waters was returned to him in the form of a cashier's check for $500. His original investment in humanity was $50. Three years ago, Bundrick, at that time a soldier at Columbus, Ga., befriended a man named Averti. He was impressed with the sincerity of the man and his story. He loaned him $50 that enabled the man to get home to Tulsa, Okla.

A few days ago the amount was returned tenfold, along with a letter expressing gratitude.

BILLIE ALMOST FORGOT THAT LOVE IS STILL BLIND

PITTSBURGH, Pa.—The clinging vine woman is still "the stuff."

LETZ QUARTET TO BE HEARD AT THE NORMAL ON FRIDAY

Top Notch Musical Entertainment on Course at the Local School

In commenting upon the opening concert of the Letz quartet in New York recently, the Brooklyn Citizen speaks of the organization as "Known to Manhattan music lovers for several years past." In fact, the quartet has made for itself a place that is so firmly established in the highest rank that New Yorkers take for granted its artistic excellence and its perfect rendition of selections. The comment of a critic writing in the New York American in review of the concert referred to above is merely this: "A marvellously fine performance." That briefly summarizes the matter and indicates what the audience of Friday evening may expect when the Letz quartet appears in the normal lecture course.

The personnel of the quartet and the program they will present follow:

Hans Letz	First violin
Edwin Bachmann	Second violin
Edward Kreiner	Viola
Horace Britt	Cello

HERE'S CHANCE FOR RISING YOUNG INVENTIVE GENIUS

ST. LOUIS. — The soda fountain sleuth is on the trail of the strong jawed gum chewer.

"The gum chewer comes in for a maple nut sundae, and when he finds his gum in the way, he drops it on the floor," said one fountain manager. "That ends his problem, and starts ours."

"Gum holders" have not yet been patented, but they may be soon.

EX-SERVICE MEN INVITED TO JOIN THE LEGION BAND

Mass Meeting at Chamber of Commerce Thursday Night to Discuss Plans

Any ex-service man interested in playing any sort of a band instrument, whether or not he is now able to play, is asked to report at a meeting to be held under the auspices of the Roy L. Vingers post of the American Legion Thursday night at 8 o'clock in the Chamber of Commerce rooms. Under the educational law, the state of Wisconsin will furnish, free of charge, instruction of this sort to any ex-service man of the state who makes application.

This offer of the state expires on January 31, so all buddies who are interested are urged to act at once—either to attend the meeting Thursday night, or arrange with D. W. Nichols, band instructor, for a private interview.

It has been explained that the course of instruction will run for at least a year's time, and there is a possibility that the time will be extended. Those who have had previous experience in playing any sort of instrument will be assigned to the senior band, while those who are just beginning will be placed in the junior section.

Officers of the Legion have arranged for the sale of instruments to prospective band members on easy terms.

GILL FINISHES UP INTENSIVE TRAINING HERE WEDNESDAY

Spectators Watching Jimmy Work Out Increase in Numbers Each Day

BUDDY MACDONALD WILL ARRIVE FRIDAY MORNING

Fighters to be Examined Friday Afternoon at Three O'clock

Daily increasing throngs have been watching Jimmy Gill work out at the Old Style Inn during the past two weeks. He finished his intensive training Wednesday afternoon and will indulge in tapering off exercise, Thursday and Friday. He has trained very faithfully for this fight and to the great satisfaction of his friends is now in the best condition of his career confident but not overly so, and if Buddy McDonald can beat him, then Buddy is good enough to be considered as an opponent for those who have arrived at pugilistic prominence.

On the other hand, if our Jimmy wins, it will give him a chance at more lucrative engagements. Local critics think that the speed boy will bewilder his opponent Friday night for his work the last few days has shown that he is deserving of the same.

McDonald was granted permission by the American Legion Post to finish his training in St. Paul and will arrive in this city Friday morning. Both fighters are of approximately the same height and reach and there will probably not be as much as one pound of difference in their weights when they step on the scales in the presence of two local physicians and the athletic commissioner at three o'clock Friday afternoon.

Drs. Flynn and Rosholt are the authorized physicians for the Commission and will examine all of the boxers at Dr. Rosholt's office in the presence of Commissioner Hart of Eau Claire. Walter Wold reports that the advance sale is several times as large as for any of the previous bouts held here and indications are that all seats will be sold before Referee Steinauer calls the two Franks together for the first preliminary.

TRIB BREAKS TRIPLE TIE AND IS SAFELY PITTED IN SECOND

The Tribune broke up the triple tie between itself the Wet Wash and Mathews Wednesday night and landed safely in second place. (It is announced in passing that the Hups won three. The Eagles took the measure of the Laundrymen for two games and the Mathews felt twice for the newspaper men.

The scores.

COMPLETE INSTALLATION OF TERRACE BLEACHERS IN GYM ALL SET FOR EAU CLAIRE

BASKETBALL fans may not be aware that a comfortable seat awaits them at Hixon gym for the Eau Claire battle Friday night. The completion and installment of the new five-terrace bleachers on the lower floor of the gym is now a fact, and the first thousand people to arrive at the scene of battle will have no trouble in finding a place to sit and watch the Red and Black in the third game of their schedule.

In order that those people who are not students of the school may not be crowded out of the good seats, the plan for seating will be that of reserving one whole side of the gym for outsiders, that is, all but the students, and the students shall be obliged to limit their choice of seats to the south row of bleachers. This plan is similar to that used by the high school during the football season.

The coming battle brings back reminiscences and a desire for revenge to the local school for the last tilt played by an Eau Claire team with La Crosse. Five years ago, in 1918, the local quintet went down to defeat twice during the season at the hands of the powerful representation from Eau Claire. La Crosse has not encountered an Eau Claire team since that date, but the desire for revenge begins to rage again, so there is little doubt but what this battle will wage furiously. The largest crowd so far this season is expected to witness this game.

NEARLY THOUSAND TEAMS ENTER FOR THE STATE BOWLING TOURNEY

GREEN BAY, Wis.—With a final official entry of 939 five man teams, a new world's record for a state pin meet, the Wisconsin State Bowling tournament will get under way on the Community building's alleys here tonight. In addition to the 939 five man entries, 1,162 doubles, and 2,315 singles are entered in the events which will be concluded Saturday Feb. 17. Prize money is listed at $14,535 as compared with a $13,066 prize purse given at the 1922 classic, held at Madison.

The first invasion of out of town squads, scheduled for this week-end, will send teams from Milwaukee, Cudahy, Luxemburg, Kawaunee, Watertown and Sheboygan struggling for honors. On Sunday additional teams from Milwaukee and Menasha will perform.

The prizes in the various events will be distributed as follows:

Four hundred and thirty two regular singles and two specials; 226 doubles and two specials; 225 five men and 22 specials, a total of 247 prizes. In addition a total of $100 will be turned over to the best individual bowler in all events as follows: First $30; second $25; third, fourth and fifth $20 $15 and $10 respectively. It has been decided that the championship team will receive $375.00; 17th prize shall be $100 and thirty-fifth place team receiving $35.

Three shifts of five man teams, 10 teams to the shift, will bowl daily at 6, 8 and 10 p. m. The doubles and singles will be rolled during the day from 8 a. m. on.

BLAINE CALLS FOR COLLECTION OF ALL UNPAID LIQUOR FINES

School Funds Deprived of Revenue by Failure of Persons Fined to Pay

MADISON, Wis.—In an effort to collect unpaid liquor law fines in Wisconsin, Governor J. J. Blaine Wednesday wrote all district attorneys asking that in all cases where fines are imposed and not collected, to move the court to direct execution where there is property subject to levy and sale on execution.

"The court in imposing a fine, imposes it with the idea of collecting it," the governor declared. "Otherwise the imposition of the fine is no punishment in itself. When imposed for other motives than punishment by payment there is a grave question as to the honesty and integrity of the sentence."

The belief that the school funds were being deprived of revenue due to fines not being paid was expressed by the chief executive.

REIMANS LOSE TO NORWALK, 28 TO 27, WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Brilliant Playing in Fast Game at Y. M. C. A. as Locals Go Down in Defeat

One of the most brilliantly played and bitterly fought basketball games which has taken place in this city for many months was seen at the Y. M. C. A. Wednesday night when the Reiman quintet went down in defeat to the Norwalk city team by the close score of 28 to 27. The game was as close throughout as at the final whistle, neither team being able to collect more than a three point lead at one time.

The visitors led at the halfway mark 13 to 10 but early in the second half the Reimans came back with a series of markers putting them three points in the lead. A field goal put Norwalk one point behind and another gave them a lead of a single point. The game seesawed back and forth from then on, with both teams leading by one score at different times.

The first game which was played between the two teams was also a victory for Norwalk. They won 22 to 18 on their home floor two weeks ago. The game was attended by a good-sized crowd of Reiman rooters.

The lineups for Wednesday's game were: Norwalk: Weibel and Zeibel, forwards; Shotten, center; Dreier and Mannel, guards. Reimans: Voss and Frederickson, forwards; Till, center; Gautsch and Gibson, guards.

RUSSIAN SINGER KILLED

PETROGRAD.—The internationally known singer Tartakoff, baritone, in the Petrograd opera, was killed in an automobile accident.

WOLVES NEAR MILWAUKEE

MILWAUKEE, Wis.—Wolves are preying on farms and terrorizing the village of Granville, a short distance north of Milwaukee, it was reported.

WHAT MANAGERS SAY ABOUT THEIR MEN BEFORE FIGHT

"PEANUTS" SCHIEBERL

Jimmy realizes that this will be his hardest fight and he has done everything asked of him to get into condition, which is now 100 per cent perfect. He is confident that he can beat MacDonald and will have no alibi to offer if he loses.

MURRAY M'LEAN

Buddy is in the pink of condition and will show La Crosse fans that he is a boxer of the first class. He has beaten all of his opponents handily and expects to check Jimmy Gill's aspirations.

An echo which repeats seventeen times is to be found between Ringen and Coblenz on the banks of the river Nahe.

Al Buser, St. Paul Central, Leads In Coach Contest At Madison After Fifth Day

APPARENTLY little interest is taken in La Crosse regarding the man who should be chosen to succeed John Richards as head football coach at the University of Wisconsin, judging from returns of the Tribune's voting contest to name the successor to the Wisconsin mentor, resigned.

But very few came in with the morning's mail on Thursday, one of them carrying the name of George Keogan, local high school mentor. Today's vote was the second day in which Keogan's name was written on the ballot.

Devine is Mentioned

The name of Aubrey Devine, assistant at the University of Iowa, has been checked several times on the list, while John Heisman, University of Pennsylvania, has received one vote.

The contest being conducted by the Wisconsin State Journal at Madison, has given Al Buser, coach at St. Paul Central high, the lead with 153 votes. George Little, assistant at Michigan, and Aubrey Devine, Iowa, are tied for second with 151 each at the end of the fifth day's voting. "Hod" Ofstie, Mississippi A. & M., has 143 and John Richards' name has been written 117 times. Jim Brader, assistant at Wisconsin, has 56 votes.

Let's Vote

Let's pep up some and get a complete vote in La Crosse to see how the city feels about the proposition. No votes for men who are not thoroughly eligible as football coaches will be counted.

Some writers say, without meaning any slap at Devine, that if Wisconsin wants a youngster without even minor college head coaching experience, there is no need to go so far afield as Iowa. Others regret that so many of their voters are casting their votes without much consideration regarding fitness of candidates and are picking football heroes, rather than coaching material.

Needless to say, Devine was a great football player — one of the greatest quarterbacks the country has known, but he is lacking in coaching experience.

RUTH IN GOTHAM TO HAVE INFECTED FINGER TREATED

Says He is Thoroughly Good Boy Now and Offers Waistline to Prove it

NEW YORK.—Babe Ruth, who used to be, in the long long ago, the bad boy of Bust, was back in New York Thursday for further treatment of the finger on his left hand that was operated on last week for an infection. Babe is now a thoroughly good boy, says so himself and offers his waistline to prove it.

The greatest base ball slugger of all time said he would remain here at least until Saturday—longer if the snow pile surrounding his farm at Sudbury, Mass., doesn't go down in proportion to the superfluous avoirdupois that he has worked off all winter emulating the wood chopper of Doorn.

Since retiring to the simple life the Bambino has disposed of twenty pounds and will be back in the best condition in which he ever has reported when he joins the Yankee pitchers in the hot baths at Hot Springs next month, he said.

MILWAUKEE. — Jimmy Nuss, De Pere, Wis., welter-weight boxer, stopped Jay Borko, Milwaukee in the 3rd. round of a 10 session bout. Two rights and a left to the jaw in the third period rendered Borko unconscious.

PREDICT LUMBER PRICE BOOST

KANSAS CITY.—Prices for lumber will advance within the next six months because of the increased building, W. S. Dickason, president of the Southwest Lumbermen's association, said in an address.

MOVIES

"THE GALLOPING KID"

When Hoot Gibson enlisted in the United States Army for the period of the war, the retiring officers knowing of his hazardous career at Universal City, assigned him for duty in the Tank corps. Breaking in whippet tanks proved no more difficult for the star than busting bucking broncos.

In his latest starring vehicle, "The Galloping Kid," which comes to the Majestic theater today, Gibson gives an exhibition of the brand of horsemanship that won for him the diamond studded championship belt at Pendleton, Oregon, in 1912.

Gibson, in the title role, portrays a wandering cowboy who drifts from one ranch to another, never being evicted before putting a meal under his belt and replenishing his supply of smokes.

CASINO TODAY

There were plenty of top-notch motion picture directors at liberty at the time Mary Pickford was called upon to decide who should direct her in her entirely new and elaborate "Tess of the Storm Country," a United Artists' release, at the Casino theater today, and in which she scored one of her early notable screen triumphs eight years ago.

But this foremost of all screen stars was convinced that the one man perfectly equipped to handle this 1922 production of an old classic was John S. Robertson.

RIVIERA TODAY

Lives there a man with soul so dead who never has thrilled to the melodrama of a finely produced crook photoplay? Is there a picture lover in La Crosse who after seeing Alice Brady in "Missing Millions," a new Paramount picture which will be shown at the Riviera, will venture the opinion that crook films have no appeal? Not when such a star and such a picture are presented, we confidently predict.

David Powell is leading man and Frank Losee is seen as Cantwell. Others in the cast are Riley Hatch, John R. Cooke, William B. Mack, Alice May, Cooper Cliffe, Sidney Dean, Beverly Travers and Sidney Herbert.

STRAND TODAY

Some unusual things are done in motion pictures but not often is an entire town transformed as was done during the production of "Making a Man," a Paramount picture starring Jack Holt which will be on view at the Strand theater today.

An entire day was spent in Burbank by the "Making a Man" unit. Following the completion of the necessary shots for the picture, the carpenters again got busy and within half an hour had removed the foreign signs and restored the original appearance of the city. But to almost change the identity of an entire business section of a thriving little city demonstrates, to a certain extent, the big things done in motion pictures to make photoplays more realistic and to entertain the public.

WESLEY BARRY

Wesley Barry, as young and freckled and funny as ever, delighted a packed house yesterday at the Rivoli theater in his latest feature picture, "Heroes of the Street." There are more laughs in this Barry picture than in a half dozen comedies, more genuine thrills and sensational happenings than ordinary mortals would expect in a lifetime. Wesley exhibits his unusual talent of making you collapse with laughter and also of bringing the furtive tear to the eye that he showed in his other screen success, "School Days" and "Rags to Riches."

Some of the rich comic situations come when Wesley, as young Mickey Callahan, son of a cop and proud of it, finds himself in a fight with several tough youngsters. That young Wesley chap surely can scrap! If you want to see a mixup that's got genuine stuff to it, see this picture.

MYSTERY MAKES A NEW GRIFFITH FILM

For his latest motion picture sensation, "One Exciting Night," which has been announced as the feature attraction for next Monday at the Riviera theater, D. W. Griffith, master-maker of photoplays, has taken for his cue the increasing popularity of the last two or three years of the stage melodrama and has produced a mystery picture par excellence.

In this newest of Grifith films, the director gives five of the six elements that go to make up effective mystery—secreted treasure, personal disappearance, puzzling homicide, hidden identity, and the return of the avenging spirit. And with it all he gives the spectator an altogether marvellous assortment in the way of actual entertainment.

TRINITY DRAMATIC CLUB TO PRESENT PLAY NEXT WEEK

Next Sunday and Tuesday, January 28 and 30, the Trinity Dramatic club will stage "It Pays to Advertise." The members are staging this in honor of their pastor's silver jubilee which was celebrated on Tuesday, January 23. The play promises to be a most entertaining feature and every effort is being put into it to make it a big success and worthy of comment. These young people have had excellent and rigid training under the leadership of their pastor, Rev. Joseph Riesterer, and their ability is now far above that of amateur dramatic club players.

As an added feature to show their appreciation, the club has worked out their plans for this occasion unbeknown to Fr. Riesterer with the help of Mr. A. H. Schubert and Mr. Myron Locke, who is coaching them.

The public is cordially invited.

REPORT NORBECK BILL

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The senate agriculture committee ordered favorable report on the Norbeck bill, which would extend credits of $250,000,000 to Europe for the purchase of American farm products.

RAIL UNION TO OPEN BANK

NEW YORK.—The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers announced that within a week it would apply for a charter for a bank in New York city to be owned by the labor union.

SET SALES RECORD

CHICAGO, Ill.—The western Electric company broke all records with total sales of $210,000,000 in 1922, $4,800,000 more than the former record year of 1920.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK—Opening prices in Thursday's stock market were irregular. Oil shares, which were under pressure Wednesday, made partial recovery and there was sporadic buying in the railroad shares. Baltimore and Ohio, Union Pacific and Southern Railway moved to higher ground but Atlantic Coast Line dropped 1¾. Standard Milling opened 2½ lower on speculative disappointment over the declaration of a 1½ per cent quarterly dividend Wednesday.

Price movements moved within narrow limits, such leaders as United States Steel common, Baldwin and Studebaker showing little or no change. United Fruit continued its advance of Wednesday, gaining 1¼ points. American Radiator advanced a point and Bethlehem B, Republic and Gulf States Steel advanced fractionally. General Cigar and American Tobacco B each dropped a point and Standard Oil of California and Missouri Pacific preferred also turned reactionary. Foreign exchange opened steady.

The early irregularity and extreme dullness wore off and the market grew steadily stronger. Reports of increased production and higher prices in the steel industry encouraged buying of steel shares eventually imparted a more buoyant tone to the other industrials, equipments, merchandising, oil, food, motor accessories and public utility shares were all in good demand. Fisher Body recovered 4½ points and Beechnut 2 from their recent heaviness. Gains of 1½ to 2½ points were registered by Gulf States Steel, American Locomotive, American Brake Shoe, Woolworth, Brown Shoe, Mackay Company and United Fruit. Call money opened at 4 per cent.

Speculators leaned more generally toward the buying side in the afternoon when the market showed increasing evidence of the exhaustion of the recent selling pressure. Buying became more diversified, railroads moving up smartly in common with numerous industrials and specialties. Declaration of an initial dividend of $1.25 quarterly on the Consolidated Gas company's new stock was greeted with an upward rush of four points. Woolworth and Hartmann Corporation advanced as much, while Postum Cereal, Montgomery Ward, Burns Brothers A., Nash Motors, Sears Roebuck and Sloss-Sheffield Steel improved 1½ to 3 points.

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET

CHICAGO, Ill.—Somewhat general selling in which Wednesday's buyers were conspicuous brought about a moderate decline in the wheat market Thursday during the early dealings. The selling was based more or less on predictions that proposed foreign credit legislation would fail to be enacted. Comparative weakness in Liverpool quotations tended further to emphasize bearish sentiment here, and so likewise did reports of increasing tension between opposing nationalities in Europe. After starting unchanged to 3/8c lower, May $1.17¼ to $1.17⅜ and July $1.11½ to $1.12, the market reacted all around.

Subsequently, the market rallied as a result of a little enlargement of demand from commission houses and the seaboard. Continued dry weather in the western parts of Kansas and Oklahoma attracted notice. The close was unsettled at the same as Wednesday's finish to ⅜c lower, May $1.17 to $1.17⅛, and July $1.11½ to $1.11⅝.

Corn and oats were relatively firm owing to unfavorable weather affecting the Argentine corn crop. The opening here for corn was ⅛ to ⅜c higher, May 72⅞ to 73⅛c, but later the market was a little easier.

Confirmation of Argentine crop damage gave the market a pronounced uplift, but for the most part the effect failed to last. The close was nervous, at a net gain of ⅛ to ¼ to ⅜c, with May 72⅞ to 73c.

Oats started unchanged to ⅛c lower, May 44⅛ to 44¼c, and held at about the initial range.

Lower quotations on hogs led to downward turns in the value of provisions.

BUTTERFLY AT SUPERIOR SURVIVES ZERO WEATHER

SUPERIOR, Wis.—When Peter Hansen, special delivery messenger at the Superior post office came out of a residence where he had delivered a letter he was astonished to find a yellow butterfly on the seat of his bicycle. He captured it. After bringing it into a heated room, he released the butterfly, which fluttered about apparently unaffected by the zero weather which prevailed outside.

FIGHT OVER NORTH SIDE SCHOOL SITE UP THIS EVENING

130 Sign Petition to Have North Branch School Returned to Old Site

North side citizens interested in retaining the North Branch school at its old site, Wood and Hayes streets, will appear before the members of four common council committees Thursday evening in the council chamber of the city hall at 8 o'clock. One hundred and thirty citizens have signed the petition to have the school, located at George and Moore streets since it was burned, returned to the old location. The petitioners state that the heavy traffic on George street is a menace to little children; that it is only four blocks from the Franklin school while on the old site it was eight blocks from the next nearest school. Advocates of the plan to leave the school at George street say the city will have to purchase only a half block for the grounds, while at Wood street a whole block will have to be bought. The petitioners on the other hand say only a half block at Wood street is necessary.

ST. JAMES PLAY TONIGHT AT THE RIVIERA THEATER

The St. James players will appear on the boards of the Riviera theater Thursday night in a four act drama entitled, "Because I Love You." The cast of the play is well chosen and has shown up splendidly in the rehearsals. Though the piece is a more difficult type than is usually attempted by amateurs, it is expected that it will be one of the most successful amateur productions ever staged on the north side. The cast is composed largely of the same people who made so many friends recently with their presentation of the comedy drama, "Heart of a Shamrock."

Thursday afternoon a matinee was given for the school children, and others who found it impossible to attend the evening performance.

WOMEN'S MEETING TO DISCUSS SCHOOL AND TAX QUESTIONS

Rural School Problems to Come up for Discussion at Madison Conference

MADISON, Wis.—Taxation and rural school problems will be considered by the convention of the Wisconsin Women's Progressive association which meets here January 30 to February 1 for the purpose of mapping out a program of legislation to be pressed before the present session.

C. J. Anderson, assistant superintendent of public instruction will present the "Rural School Problems in Wisconsin," to the delegates. For the past year he has made a thorough study of the rural school situation in Wisconsin, and is prepared to present a rural school program to the women. Mr. Anderson has taught in Wisconsin for the past 22 years.

The tax program is to be discussed by Judge Charles D. Rosa, a member of the Wisconsin tax commission. Judge Rosa is the author of an extensive tax bill to be introduced into the present session of the legislature. He has made an extensive study of the tax problems confronting the state and will talk on "Taxation. Why It Should Interest Women."

Senator Henry A. Huber, Stoughton is to discuss his unemployment insurance bill before the conference, explaining its provisions. This measure will be indorsed by the convention.

STATE REGULATION OF COBBLERS ASKED BY MILWAUKEE MAN

MADISON, Wis.—A bill that would require the licensing of shoe repairers in the state was introduced in the lower house of the Wisconsin legislature Thursday by Assemblyman John W. Ehrt, Milwaukee.

The bill, according to its author, is similar to the regulations of this industry used in some European countries. Under its provisions a board of three members would be appointed by the governor to hold examinations for licenses. An apprentice license would be granted a shoemaker for two years after which a journeyman's license would be issued upon satisfactory passage of an examination, any time after one year as a journeyman repairer an examination could be taken for a master shoe repairer's license, under terms of the bill.

The board would also be charged with adopting rules and regulations to provide for sanitary and general working conditions.

WILLARD BAKER DEAD

PRESTON, Minn.—Willard D. Baker died here last night after a three weeks' illness. He was a retired farmer, coming here from Canton township about ten years ago. Mr. Baker was about 70 years old. Surviving him are his widow and four daughters.

UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE MEASURE OFFERED BY HUBER DIFFERS FROM EARLIER BILL

MADISON, Wis.—A radically different unemployment insurance bill was introduced in the senate Thursday by Senator Henry Huber than that of the 1921 session. Senator Huber in an interview today declared that the new bill is aimed to "create a wholesome incentive for industry to reduce unemployment to the minimum" and that his bill is so drawn that the good manager will make money preventing unemployment.

Features of the new bill are:

Seasonal industries exempted.

All small employers and storekeepers employing less than six are exempted outright.

Farmers do not come under the act.

To claim compensation of $1 a day an employe must have worked six months in the state and will receive compensation for one week out of each four he was previously employed, with a limit of 13 weeks in a year.

No compensation paid for unemployment caused by labor troubles, dismissal for reasonable cause, nor when an employe voluntarily quits.

Can be Prevented

"Management, industry and credit can prevent the periodic unemployment in this country if they once set themselves to the task," declared Senator Huber. "Just as the accident law of 1912 made it expensive to neglect the protection of the worker, so the unemployment prevention bill will create the same incentive. Once the incentive is created by law, the road to prevention is clear.

"The state, labor, or community can not prevent unemployment. This is why we do not want them to bear the cost. Not one dollar of tax burden will be added by the passage of this bill. Industry must solve its own problems. Industry will profit by so doing.

"Seasonal industries deserve special consideration. They are exempted from seasonal unemployment. This affects a majority of the industries of the state.

Dollar a Day

"The cure for unemployment is employment. Hence if industries are required to pay $1 a day to the worker laid off they will hesitate before they lay off men. They will plan their work ahead. They will hire and fire more cautiously. An employee must have worked 6 months in the state to come under the act. He is compensated one week for each four weeks he was employed, with a limit of 13 weeks in a year. The worker wants a job not charity. That is why he is paid so little. No compensation is paid for unemployment caused by labor troubles, dismissal for reasonable cause, or in case the employee voluntarily quits his job. He gets no pay if he refuses other work for which he is reasonably fitted."

The proposed law would be administered by the industrial commission and the state compensation insurance board. Employers will insure their compensation liability with mutual companies.
